1. The Multigrade Program supports the strategic direction of the department to expand access, and improve the quality of education by constructing schools in far flung areas and underserved communities.
2. Multigrade classes have distinctive needs in terms of instructional planning, and delivery, classroom management and resource utilization.
3. In response to these challenges, SDO Dapitan City , has scheduled monitoring, supervision and evaluation activities in Multigrade Schools to:
  - a. ensure all school-age learners and out of school youth are in school
  - b. ensure all learners in school are participating actively in the teaching and learning process.
  - c. ensure all learners in school can read, write and demonstrate the necessary competencies for learning with proper values and attitudes.
  - d. provides a systematic process for M & E for DepEd’s curriculum implementation and integrating mechanism across governance levels.
4. Anent this, the monitoring schedule is scheduled on the following dates:
  - August 12, 2025 - Capucao ES
  - August 13, 2025 - Yabu ES
  - October 6, 2025 - Capucao ES
  - October 7, 2025 - Yabu ES
  - December 1, 2025 - Capucao ES
