SUBJECT: PERSONAL FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT SEMINAR-WORKSHOP FOR NEWLY HIRED TEACHING AND NON-TEACHING PERSONNEL

DATE: March 4, 2022

The Department of Education (DepEd) issued a Financial Education Policy under DepEd Order No.022, s.2021 pursuant to pertinent provisions of Republic Act (RA) No. 10922 or the Economic and Financial Literacy Act of 2016 and RA 10679 or the Youth Entrepreneurship Act of 2015.

In line with this, the division will conduct a “Personal Financial Management Seminar-Workshop” for Newly Hired Teaching and Non-Teaching Personnel on March 24-25, 2022 at DepEd Division Office, Conference Hall .

Objectives of this activity:

1. To enhance the financial literacy and financial capability of all public school teachers, and DepEd personnel to make sound financial decisions that lead to financial health and financial inclusion.
2. To support teachers and all DepEd personnel in their journey toward financial freedom. DepEd personnel are in a strategic position to shape and influence prudent financial values and behavior of every learner, their peers, and their communities. As educators, it is important that DepEd personnel are role models of financial well-being.
3. To support DepEd in its pursuit of holistic development of teaching and non-teaching personnel, not just in professional aspects but also in financial wellness so they can continue to uphold the dignity of the teaching profession.

The activity shall be conducted through limited face-to-face and online platform. Attached herewith is the list of participants per batch. The identified participants are instructed to accomplish the Google Form and access at: <https://bit.ly/PFM2022REG> for the online registration on or before March 14, 2022 up to 5:00 pm.
