MS. SHULAMITE GRACE AMORES BLANCO

Regional Nutritionist, Division Office IX Coordinator

Sir Dr. Fuentes,

Good day! Please accept my warmest greetings. The Department of Agriculture, Regional Field Office, Surigao, through the National Urban and Peri-Urban Agriculture Program, Surigao and High Value Crops Development Program (HVCDF), will conduct a series of Lutayan sa Paaralan Package of Technology Training on Vegetable Production (GPP-POT) within Zamboanga Peninsula Division Office IX in the Lutayan sa Paaralan Coordinations.

The program aims to help school food security in schools, maintain school gardens to serve as the main source of vegetable consumption, supplement feeding, and showcase a small-scale food production model in schools to help schools to replicate and promote family food security. The program will be undertaken in coordination with the Division Office IX (DOIX).

As a result of this program, the Division Office IX will coordinate MS. SHULAMITE GRACE AMORES BLANCO Regional Nutritionist, Division Office IX, to assist the Division Office IX in the selection of this year's identified school beneficiaries to participate on their vegetable training. The Department of Agriculture, Regional Field Office IX will provide meals and transportation for the participants for the entire duration of the training. Traveling expenses and per diems, however, shall be provided by your office.
